ICHAD / SMART Africa Research Training Programs

Applications Open October 1, 2020 — Deadline January 4, 2021

ICHAD / SMART Africa
Research Training Programs

LEAD Global Training Program  https://sites.wustl.edu/lead/

⇒ Ten-week virtual summer intensive training & research mentorship
⇒ Research Focus: Global health disparities with a focus on mental health
⇒ Eligibility
  • PhD students through early career faculty (advanced degree received within 5 years of program start)
  • US citizen, non-citizen national, or permanent resident
  • From a group underrepresented in biomedical, behavioral, clinical & social science research

Researcher Resilience Training Program  https://sites.wustl.edu/rrtraining/

⇒ One or two years, includes 10-week virtual summer training
⇒ Research focus: Child and adolescent mental health in low-resource settings
⇒ Eligibility
  • PhD students through early career faculty (advanced degree received within 5 years of program start)
  • Must be working with a U.S.-based institution
  • Priority to those of African descent

CHILD-Global Research Fellowship  https://sites.wustl.edu/childgrf/

⇒ Three years; includes 10-week virtual summer training in Year 1 with potential travel to U.S. in future summers
⇒ Research focus: Child and adolescent HIV and mental health
⇒ Eligibility
  • Advanced graduate-level student through early career faculty (advanced degree received within 5 years of program start)
  • Must be a Ugandan national

Visit Capacity Building online at https://ichad.wustl.edu/capacity-building/